

KeraLink
INTERNATIONAL

Advancing Corneal Transplantation

5520 Research Park Drive
Suite 400
Baltimore, MD 21228
410.752.3800
KeraLink.org

Business Title: On-Call Ocular Recovery Technician
Location: Orlando, FL
Reporting to: Recovery Supervisor

Purpose: The On-Call Ocular Recovery Technician will recover donated tissue that enhances and improves lives globally.

Key Areas of Responsibility:

May perform all or some of the following and operates in accordance with our stated operating procedures while upholding our corporate values.

Tissue Recovery

- Recovers donated tissue from all sources following TBI standard procedures.
- Accepts on-call responsibilities for tissue recovery as scheduled.

Laboratory Support and Maintenance

- Performs other duties as needed or assigned in lab maintenance, quality control, training and research.

Documentation and Record Keeping

- Maintains documentation of in-process tissue as required, updating records at each step in the process.
- Maintains confidentiality of donor related information.

Key Qualifications, Requirements and Attributes:

- A passion for enhancing the lives of others.
- A high degree of respect for the gift we are entrusted to steward.
- Ability to solve practical problems and deal with a variety of variables in compliance through standard operating procedures.
- Associates degree or higher or equivalent education/experience in an allied health care field.
- Must have valid driver's license with an insurable driving record.
- Strong interpersonal and organizational skills; excellent attention to detail and ability to coordinate multiple activities.
- MUST be available to work a 7-day schedule as needed or schedule rotation including nights & weekends.